

PROFILE
Board Member

T.K. WATERS

BIOGRAPHY

Thomas "T.K." Waters joined the Jacksonville Sheriff's Office as a patrol officer in 1991. With nearly 29 years of law enforcement experience, he currently serves as Chief of the Investigations Division. Additionally, he has served the citizens of the City of Jacksonville, Florida with distinction in the following areas: Assistant Chief, Zone Commander, Violence Reduction Strategy Project Manager Patrol Officer, Community Oriented Policing Strategies, Narcotics Detective, Task Force Officer, Traffic Enforcement Officer, Patrol Sergeant, Task Force Sergeant, Traffic Enforcement Sergeant, Auto Theft Unit Sergeant, Jacksonville Sheriff's Office Honor Guard and also in the JSO Homicide Unit. He has received numerous awards including Jacksonville Sheriff's Office Supervisor of the Year. His vast experience and being a veteran of law enforcement aligns perfectly with the foundation's value of community advocacy.

EDUCATION

B.S. Interdisciplinary Studies (Homeland Security)

Liberty University

B.S. Member and Trustee

Bible Believers Baptist Church